ARUN MONGA, J. (ORAL)

While none appears for the appellants, on the other hand, learned counsel for the respondents submits that the parties have settled their dispute amicably and as per his instructions, the instant regular second appeal has been rendered infructuous. On his statement, the instant appeal is disposed of as infructuous with liberty to the appellant to file appropriate application to revive the same in case anything survives.

Pending application, if any, stand disposed of.
