CRM No.7510 of 2020

Application is allowed, as prayed for.

CRM-M No.8740 of 2020

Present petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C is for grant of regular bail to petitioner-Subodh Chaudhary in case F.I.R. No.674 dated 10.10.2019 under Section 20 of NDPS Act, registered at Police Station Surajkund, District Faridabad.

Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that petitioner has no nexus whatsoever with the alleged offence and even otherwise alleged recovery of contraband i.e. Ganja weighing 600 grams falls within the ambit of small quantity, whereas alleged contraband Charas (Sulfa) weighing one kilogram falls in non-commercial quantity. She further submits that petitioner is in custody since 10.10.2019 and he is no more required by the Police for any investigation purpose. She further submits that after completion of investigation, challan has been presented in the Court and trial has already commenced. She further urges that since trial of the case would take sufficient time to conclude, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in custody further and he may be released on bail.

On the other hand, learned State counsel while opposing instant petition has vehemently argued that keeping in view seriousness of offence, petitioner does not deserve the concession of bail.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties.

At this stage, without commenting anything on the merits of the case lest it may prejudice the outcome of the trial but taking into consideration the fact that petitioner is in custody since 10.10.2019; that challan has been presented against the petitioner in the Court; that trial has already commenced and since trial of the case would take sufficient time to conclude, no useful purpose would be served by detaining the petitioner in custody further, thus, he deserves the concession of bail.

In view of above, instant petition for grant of regular bail moved by petitioner-Subodh Chaudhary is allowed and he is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing personal/surety bonds to the satisfaction of Trial Court/Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Magistrate, Faridabad, as the case may be.
