TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J (Oral)

Matter has been taken up through video conferencing via Webex facility in the light of the Pandemic Covid-19 situation and as per instructions.

By way of filing the instant petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C, directions are sought by the petitioners to the official respondents to ensure that the private respondents do not interfere in the married life of the petitioners. Further directions are sought for protection of life and liberty.

Counsel for the petitioners has been heard and pleadings on records have been perused.

Averments made in the petition are wholly insufficient for this Court to infer any imminent danger to the life and liberty of the petitioners. That apart, the pleadings do not inspire any confidence as regards the private respondents interfering in the married life of the petitioners.

No interference in the matter is called for.

Petition is dismissed.
