ARUN MONGA, J.(ORAL)

The present Regular Second Appeal arises out of civil suit filed way back in the year 1986 seeking declaration to the effect that plaintiff/respondent be declared owner of suit property being in possession of the same for the last 30 years and for non-redemption of the mortgaged of the suit land for 30 years. The trial Court decreed the suit vide judgment dated 30.05.1988 in favour of the plaintiff and the first Appeal filed by the defendant was also dismissed by re-affirming the findings returned by the trial Court and by upholding the judgment and decree based on the same.

In the Regular Second Appeal before this Court by the defendant, no interim order stay was granted on the judgment and decree assailed herein and the case was admitted vide order dated 20.07.1990.

None appeared for the appellant on the last two dates of hearing i.e. 02.11.2017 and 28.11.2017. Today, again is the same position.

It seems that by sheer efflux of time, the appellant/defendant has either lost interest or otherwise the present appeal has become infructuous.

In the premise, the appeal is disposed of with liberty to file an appropriate application, in case, any cause of action still survives.
