The said misunderstandings, it is submitted, have since been removed. Even if the allegations in the FIR are taken on the face value though specifically denied, the petitioners are attributed with fist blows and pouring cold water on the complainant apart from snatching of mobile phone alongwith Rs.5,000/-. The petitioners, it is submitted have co-operated with the investigating agency and undertake to continue doing so. It is, thus, prayed, that these petitions be allowed.

Learned counsel for the State, on instructions from ASI Jawant Singh, informs that the matter has been amicably resolved between the parties. It is verified that the petitioners are not involved in any other criminal case and their custodial interrogation is not required.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances noted above but without expressing any opinion on the merits of case, it is considered just and expedient to allow these petitions. In the event of their arrest, petitioners shall be released on bail to the satisfaction of Investigating Officer. They shall join investigation as and when required and comply with the conditions stipulated in Section 438 (2) Cr.P.C.
