Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner at length, as prayed for, the petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondent-authorities to consider and decide the petitioner's representation regarding the experience clause inserted in the tender.

For the purposes of enabling the authorities to do so, the petitioner has to file a copy of the petition along with today's order before the respondent-authorities who may thereafter proceed to consider and decide the representation (Annexure P-8) of the petitioner expeditiously in accordance with law. The authorities may, if so advised, grant personal hearing to the petitioner.

It is made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case.

With these observations, the petition stands disposed of.
