HARNARESH SINGH GILL, J. (ORAL)

Case is being taken up for hearing through video conferencing.

The present criminal writ petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of Mandamus to official respondents No. 1 to 3 for protecting the life and liberty of the petitioners at the hands of private respondents.

Learned counsel for the petitioners states that both the petitioners are major and are living together in live-in-relationship against the wishes of respondents No. 4 to 8 and have sought protection to their life and liberty. They apprehend danger from respondents No. 4 to 8. He further states that the petitioners could not marry because of Covid-19 and as and when the situation becomes normal, they will perform the marriage. The petitioners have submitted a representation dated 07.05.2020 (Annexure P-3) to respondent No. 2.

At the outset, learned State counsel pointed out that the families of both the petitioners have given their consent that they do not have any issued by SSP Bathinda, the petitioners have solemnized their marriage on 01.06.2020 with the consent of their families and therefore, there is no danger to the life and liberty of the petitioners any more.

Keeping in view the above, the present petition has become infructuous.

Disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
