CRM-W-225-2020

1. This is application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. seeking exemption from filing appropriate court fee in support of the main petition.
2. For reasons mentioned in the application, which is accompanied by the affidavit, the same is allowed as prayed for.

CRWP No.3190 of 2020

3. The present petition has been filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of directions to respondents No.2 and 3 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners at the hands of respondents No.4 to 9, not to harass or interfere in the peaceful married life of the petitioners.
4. The counsel for the petitioners has submitted that he has verified the identity of the petitioners.
5. The petitioners seek protection of their life and liberty by contending that both of them having attained the age of majority, have married each other against the wishes of their respective family members/respondents No.4 to 9 and so seek appropriate protection from the authorities. They claim to have submitted a representation (Annexure P-4) in this regard to the Sr. Superintendent of Police, Jalandhar Rural, on

05.05.2020, but are still apprehensive about their safety and security in view of the alleged inaction of the police and the alleged clout of their family members/respondents.

6. Notice of motion.

7. Ms. Bhavna Gupta, DAG, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of the State.

8. Both the petitioners do appear to have crossed the age of majority as seen from the copies of documents filed and claim to have married each other, in support of which photographs (Annexures P-3) have been placed on record.

9. For the aforesaid reasons, this appears to be a fit case for this Court to invoke the writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India to ensure the right to life and liberty as guaranteed to them by Article 21 of the Constitution.

10. Thus, the Sr. Superintendent of Police, Jalandhar Rural is directed to consider the representation dated 05.05.2020 (Annexure-P-4) and take appropriate steps to ensure that no harm is caused to the life and liberty of the petitioners. It is nevertheless clarified that this order is issued only on the premise that the petitioners have crossed the age of majority; as seen from the documents placed on record; being Aadhaar Cards of the petitioners No.1 & 2 (Annexures P-1 & P-1A) and Fifth Class certificate of petitioner No.2 (Annexure P-2). The petitioners have produced on record photographs (Annexure P-3) qua their stated marriage. However, this order would not ipso facto amount to granting any seal of approval on the legality of their marriage, which essentially would come in the domain of the concerned Matrimonial Courts. Further, they would not be entitled for any protection against their arrest or continuance of any criminal proceedings, if otherwise, found to be involved in commission of any cognizable offence(s).

11. The petition is disposed of with the above direction.
