Versus

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIRMALJIT KAURPresent: Mr. Sanjeev Majra, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Tanisha Peshawaria, DAG, Haryana.

NIRMALJIT KAUR, J. (ORAL)

It is not disputed that the similarly situated co-accused, namely, Krishan has since been granted bail by the Additional Sessions Judge, Kaithal. Whereas, the bail application of the present petitioner has been dismissed. Further, no cancellation has been filed for the co-accused by the State. Thus, this Court finds no reason to discriminate the case of the present petitioner from that of co-accused.

Accordingly, the present petition is allowed. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on furnishing of bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Magistrate.
