RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J.(Oral)

[1]. The case has been taken up for hearing through video-conferencing.

[2]. Petitioner has preferred this revision petition against the order dated 28.04.2020 passed by the trial Court, vide which application filed by the plaintiff for restraining the defendants from creating hindrance for harvesting of the wheat crop was allowed. In the concluding part, the trial Court has also directed the plaintiff to return the proceeds of the crop, if he ultimately fails to prove his case during trial before the trial Court.

[3]. Feeling aggrieved against the aforesaid order dated 28.04.2020 passed by the trial Court, the petitioner sought recalling of the order before the trial Court by moving an application. The trial Court without adverting to the application, proceeded to decide the main application under Order 39 Rules 1 and 2 CPC vide order dated 29.05.2020, against which an appeal filed by the petitioner is pending before the Court of Additional District Judge, Jalandhar.

[4]. The grievance of the petitioner, if any, would lie before the Appellate Court, where the appeal is pending.

[5]. This revision petition is found to be totally devoid of merits and is dismissed as such.
