Dr. S. Muralidhar, J.

1. The Court is informed that the tender, which forms the subject matter of the present petition, has been cancelled. Further, a fresh tender has been floated for the same work and has been allotted to someone else.
2. In that view of the matter, the present petition has been rendered infructuous and is disposed of as such.
3. As regards Respondent No. 6, which had been allotted the work pursuant to the tender forming the subject matter of the present petition, liberty is granted to it to work out its grievances in separate proceedings in accordance with law.
