All cases listed today have been taken up for hearing by way of video conferencing because of the situation existing due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

Pursuant to the earlier orders passed, a status report by way of an affidavit of the DSP, Sub Division Barnala, dated 30.11.2020, is on record, in which it is stated that though complaints were earlier received against the petitioner from one Manju Bala, eventually upon an enquiry conducted, no action was found to be required by the police and consequently the complaints were filed away and presently there is no complaint pending against the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in view of the aforesaid statement made, this petition has been rendered infructuous.

Disposed of as such.
