All cases listed today have been taken up for hearing by way of video conferencing because of the situation existing due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

Pursuant to the order dated 19.06.2020, learned State counsel submits that the petitioner has joined investigation and in view of the fact that the matter has been compromised between the parties, presently his custodial interrogation is not required.

He also refers to an affidavit dated July 08/09, 2020, of the Sh.Satish Kumar, Assistant Commissioner of Police, Panchkula, wherein it has been stated in paragraph 3 that as per the inquiry conducted, it was found that the complainant, i.e. the father of the victim, has compromised the matter with the petitioner(accused) on the condition that the petitioner would marry the victim after she attains the age of majority.

That being so, without making any comment on the actual merits of the case, this petition is disposed of, with the order admitting the petitioner to interim anticipatory bail on 19.06.2020, made absolute on the same terms and conditions.
