GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J.(Oral)

After arguing for some time, the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he may be permitted to withdraw the present petition with liberty to file a suit for partition before appropriate authority, if permissible under law.

In view of the aforesaid submission, the present petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty aforesaid.

It is, however, clarified that any construction raised by any of the co-owner upon the suit property will not vest any right upon either of the parties to claim that particular piece of land at the time of partition.
