Amol Rattan Singh, J. (Oral)

All the cases listed today have been taken up for hearing by way of video conferencing because of the situation existing due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

The petitioner having been admitted to bail by the trial court first by an order dated 19.09.2017 and thereafter upon his arrest after his return to India again on 06.03.2018, I do not see why this court should entertain this petition, without the trial court having been approached first.

Consequently, while dismissing this petition, without making any comment on the merits thereof, the petitioner would be at liberty to move an appropriate application before the trial court, which would decide the application of the petitioner on its own merits.
