All cases listed today have been taken up for hearing by way of video conferencing because of the situation existing due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Upon learned State counsel pointing it out, Mr. Brar, learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that he subsequently became aware that this is the second petition filed by the petitioner seeking the same concession and consequently he wishes to withdraw the petition, with liberty to file a fresh one (a second petition seeking bail under the provisions of Section 439 of the Cr.P.C.), with better particulars therein.
