TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J (Oral)

Matter has been taken up through video conferencing via Webex facility in the light of the Pandemic Covid-19 situation and as per instructions.

Instant petition was filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C praying for issuance of directions to official respondents no.2 to 4 to conduct a free, fair and impartial investigation in FIR No.125 dated 25.3.2020 registered under Sections 304-B, 34, 506 I.P.C at Police Station, Sampla, District Rohtak.

The petition had come up for preliminary hearing on 17.7.2020 and learned State counsel had been directed to furnish a status report as regards investigation in the matter.

In due compliance of the order passed by this Court, a status report by way of affidavit of Dy.S.P., Rohtak dated 5.8.2020 along with Annexure R-1 (copy of challan) has been placed on record. A complete copy has already been furnished to counsel for the petitioner.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that in view of the stand taken in the status report and the challan having already been filed, he would not be pressing the instant petition. He, however, submits that qua respondents no.7 to 11 who have been found innocent and not involved in the commission of offence, he would take recourse to his remedies in accordance with law.

Disposed of.
