The petitioner has approached this Court seeking issuance of a direction to respondents No.2 and 3 to protect his life and property and also of other members of his family as he apprehends threat to the same at the hands of respondents No.4 to 7.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that his son was married to respondent No.4 Amandeep Kaur on 26.2.2012 but the marriage somehow did not work out well and his son used to be harassed by respondents No.4 to 7 and being fed up with the said harassment he ultimately ended his life on 19.3.2020. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that respondent No.4 as well as respondents No.5 to 7 are now eyeing the property of the petitioner's son and have been unnecessarily harassing him and issuing threats to implicate him in some false cases.

It has further been submitted that respondents No.5 and 7 who are father and brother of petitioner's daughter-in-law are both working in Punjab Police and as such he faces a genuine apprehension of being caused some harm by some false implication.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and without commenting anything on the veracity of the averments made in the petition, the petition is disposed of with a direction to the Commissioner of Police, Amritsar (respondent No.2) to get the matter examined and to dispose of the representation dated 11.7.2020 (Annexure P-2) in accordance with law. In case the allegations made therein are found to be well founded, then necessary steps as warranted under law be taken thereupon at the earliest.

A copy of this order along with copy of representation (Annexure P-2) be sent to the Commissioner of Police, Amritsar (respondent No.2), so as to enable him to do the needful expeditiously.
