This matter is being taken up for hearing through video conferencing due to outbreak of the pandemic, COVID-19.

Petitioner, seeks the concession of bail pending trial in FIR No.90 dated 19.03.2020, under Sections 384, 388, 389, 506, 120-B IPC, registered at Police Station Adampur, District Hisar.

Notice of motion.

Mr. Anmol Malik, DAG., Haryana, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State. Advance copy of the application stands served.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. It is submitted that the petitioner is in contact with the co-accused namely Lali, because she is a co-owner of the shop, where the petitioner is running a boutique. The petitioner, who is stated to be running a boutique, it is contended, has nothing to do with the offence in question. The complainant, though known to the petitioner being an agent of a cloth merchant, has falsely implicated the petitioner to wriggle out of his financial liabilities.

Challan in this case stands presented. No recovery has to be effected from the petitioner, who is not involved in any other criminal case. It is thus prayed that the present petition be allowed.

Learned counsel for the State, on instructions from SI Sahab Ram, verifies that the final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C, stands presented in this matter and that the petitioner is not involved in any other criminal case.

There are no allegations on behalf of the State that the petitioner is likely to abscond or that she is likely to dissuade the witnesses from deposing true facts in Court, if released on bail. Trial in this case is not likely to be concluded in the near future. No useful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner incarcerated any longer in the facts and circumstances of this case.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances as above but without commenting upon or expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this petition filed by petitioner-Pinki, is allowed. The petitioner be released on bail pending trial subject to her furnishing requisite bail bonds and surety to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court/Duty Magistrate.

Petitioner shall not try to contact the complainant or any of the witnesses, directly or indirectly. Any such infraction shall entail cancellation of bail afforded to her.

It is clarified that none of the observations made hereinabove shall be construed to be a reflection on the merits of the case. The same are solely confined for the purpose of decision of the present petition.
