The petitioners have approached this Court, by way of filing the present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, seeking protection of their life and liberty on the premise that petitioner No. 1 has performed marriage with petitioner No. 2 against the wishes of her parents and other family members and the petitioners are apprehending threat to their life and liberty at their instance.

As per the contents of the petition, the petitioners have performed marriage on 11.08.2020.

Learned counsel for respondent No. 4 Tayyab, who is the father of petitioner No. 1, submits that petitioner No. 2 is already married, having a living spouse, and petitioner No. 1 is the real sister of the first wife of petitioner No. 2 and, therefore, when both the petitioners are already married having living spouses, the present petition has been filed just to get the seal of the Court that they have married on 11.08.2020 as this marriage is illegal.

After hearing learned counsel for the parties, considering the contents of para 10 of the petition as well as the statement made at bar by learned counsel for respondent No. 4, I find no ground to grant protection to the petitioners.

Petition stands dismissed.

However, it will be open for the petitioners to approach Civil Court regarding validity of their marriage.
