RAJBIR SEHRAWAT, J. (Oral)

The present petition has been filed by the petitioner under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance direction to respondents No.2 to 4 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner from the hands of the private respondents.

The perusal of the case file shows that the petitioner has already lodged an FIR under Section 498-A IPC against her husband. Considering the merits of the case, the trial court has already granted bail to the husband of the petitioner. It appears that the fact that husband has been granted bail, has not gone down well with the petitioner. Therefore, the petitioner is agitating a representation dated 14.12.2019, which she had filed before the husband of the petitioner was granted bail.

This court also finds that there is nothing on record to suggest that the petitioner is having any threat to her life and liberty.

In view of the above, the present petition is dismissed.
