CRM-W-776-2020

Exemption application is ordered by granting time to comply with all required formalities. The certified copy of the final order in the writ petition shall be furnished only after compliance with the required formalities as to payment of Court fee and welfare tickets.

CRWP-6350-2020

The petitioners are both majors. They claim to be married, though the first petitioner is stated to be the second wife of the second petitioner. The petitioners are Muslims. However, the validity and legality of their marital status and relationship is not the subject matter of this writ petition. The petitioners apprehend threat to their lives and liberty from relations who are opposed to their relationship. The petitioners claim to have made a representation to the Superintendent of Police, Nuh, Haryana (respondent No. 2), in this regard.

Trite to state, it is the bounden duty and obligation of the State to protect the lives and liberty of the people.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of directing the Superintendent of Police, Nuh, Haryana (respondent No. 2), to take appropriate action, as warranted and in accordance with law, upon the representation dated 13.08.2020 (Annexure P-5), and to extend adequate protection to the lives and liberty of the petitioners, if necessary. It shall be open to the police authorities concerned to verify and confirm the identity of the petitioners and their claim.

It is made clear that this Court has not gone into the validity or legality of the marital status claimed by the petitioners and this order shall not be construed as this Court's approval of the said relationship or certification of its validity.

No order as to costs.
