Written statement received through E-mail is taken on record.

It has been stated by learned counsel for the petitioner that as per Section 5A (ii) of the Haryana Good Conduct Prisoners (Temporary release) Act, 1988, the petitioner has completed 5 years imprisonment after he was declared to be falling in the category of hard core prisoner. The said period also includes two years custody period during the course of trial and has relied upon CRWP-388-2017; titled as Surjeet Singh vs. State of Haryana and others, decided on 30.11.2017. It has been conceded that the impugned order declining the release on parole has been passed on 6.4.2020 i.e. before the completion of 5 years. Subsequently, another application for grant of special parole for six weeks has been submitted which is stated to be still pending, as mentioned in para No.8 of the written statement.

It has been pointed out by learned State counsel that appropriate decision on the said application shall be taken in accordance with law by the respondent No.2 expeditiously.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that the present petition may be disposed of with the direction for expeditious disposal of the pending application for special parole.

In these circumstances, the petition is disposed of with the direction to respondent No.2 to take appropriate decision in accordance with law on the pending application for grant of special parole for six weeks expeditiously and preferably within a period of one month.
