File has been taken up in the National Lok Adalat. An amicable settlement has been effected between the parties. Respondent No.1-Salinder Singh has made a statement to the effect that matter has been amicably settled and he has received the entire outstanding amount due payable by respondent No.1/complainant from petitioner-Anil Kumar. He has further made a statement that nothing is due payable to him on the basis of the disputed cheque. It has further been stated by him that he has no objection if the revision is accepted and the impugned judgments and sentences imposed with regard to the imprisonment and payment of compensation are set aside and petitioner-Anil Kumar is acquitted of the allegations levelled against him.

Petitioner-Anil Kumar has also made a separate statement acknowledging the fact of amicable settlement. He has also stated that statement of respondent No.1-Salinder Singh is correct and the matter may be disposed of in terms of the said settlement.

In view of the statements of the parties, the revision is accepted, the impugned judgments and sentences imposed with regard to the imprisonment and payment of compensation are set aside and the petitioner is acquitted of the allegations levelled against him.
