ARUN MONGA, J. (ORAL)

The petitioners have approached this Court under Articles 226/227 of Constitution of India, seeking directions to the official respondents to protect their life and liberty from the private respondents as the private respondents are trying to dispossess them forcibly from the house where they are residing presently.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that both the petitioners are old ladies aged 65 and 85 years, respectively. The private respondents, in connivance with police officials, are forcibly trying to dispossess them from their residence. They also made representation dated 24.08.2020 (Annexure P-10) to respondent No.2, but no action has been taken thereon till date. Hence, the petition.

3. Notice of motion.

4. Mr. Luvinder Sofat, AAG, Punjab, who has joined proceedings, on service of advance copy of petition, accepts notice on behalf of State of Punjab.

5. Given the nature of order being passed, there is no necessity to seek return by any of the respondents as no further proceedings and/or pleadings are required.

6. Without commenting on the merits of the case, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the competent authority/respondent No.3-Senior Superintendent of Police, Fazilka, to look into the representation dated 24.08.2020 (Annexure P-10) and take appropriate steps if deemed necessary, in accordance with law, for grant of protection of life and liberty to the petitioners.

Present petition stands disposed of.
