

Rakesh Kumar

Versus

... Respondent(s)

* * * *

Learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that the show cause notice has been issued by an Officer falling in Scale V while the appropriate authority for initiating the disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner would be an Officer falling in Scale VI. He has further contended that a representation dated 04.08.2020 (Annexure P-10) has been submitted to respondent No.1/Deputy General Manager, United India Insurance Company Ltd., Regional Office, Chandigarh wherein all these issues including the competency/jurisdiction to issue the show cause notice have been raised, however, no action has been taken so far.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that he would be satisfied if a direction is issued to respondent No.1 to decide the representation dated 04.08.2020 (Annexure P-10) in a time bound manner.

Since the writ petition is not being decided on merits, issuance of notice to the respondents is dispensed with.

In view of the statement made by the counsel for the petitioner, the present writ petition is disposed off with a direction to respondent No.1 to decide the representation dated 04.08.2020 (Annexure P-10) in accordance with law, as expeditiously as possible preferably within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the certified copy of this order.

Disposed off, accordingly.
