Exemption application is ordered. Time is granted for complying with all legal formalities. Certified copy of the final order passed in this case shall be furnished only upon due compliance.

CRM-M-26332-2020

The petitioner is the sole accused in FIR No. 0026 dated 27.2.2020 on the file of Police Station Dhanaula, District Barnala, registered under Sections 341, 323 and 506 IPC. By way of this petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., he seeks quashing of the said FIR.

According to the petitioner, the matter was compromised with the second respondent-complainant and compromise deed dated 21.8.2020 was executed in furtherance thereof.

Mr. Sushil K. Verma, learned counsel, entered appearance for the second respondent and filed his power of attorney. The same is taken on record. He confirms that the matter has been amicably settled by and between the parties and that his client no longer wishes to continue with the criminal proceedings launched against the petitioner.

Mr. Gaurav Garg Dhuriwala, learned Senior Deputy Advocate General, Punjab, states that he was unable to contact the investigating officer and is, therefore, not in a position to report on the criminal antecedents of the petitioner, if any.

Given the fact that the offences alleged against the petitioner would not entail imprisonment in excess of two years, even if proved, and as the fate of the case stands settled owing to the compromise arrived at by and between the opposing parties, no purpose is served in wasting the resources and time of the State in proceeding further with this case.

In that view of the matter, this petition is allowed and FIR No. 0026 dated 27.2.2020 on the file of Police Station Dhanaula, District Barnala, and all proceedings pertaining thereto are hereby quashed.
