Respondent No.1-M/s Baghel Foods Private Limited filed a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against the petitioner, herein, on the ground that the cheque in the sum of Rs.1,07,475/- issued in favour of the complainant had been dishonoured. The learned Magistrate after considering the entire matter, convicted the petitioner, herein and sentenced him to undergo imprisonment for a period of six months and further burdened him with a fine of Rs.2,000/- in default of payment. Appeal against the order of the Trial Magistrate was dismissed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge. Hence, the present revision petition at the instance of Sukhpal Singh @ Sukhpal Khullar.

The revision petition was admitted on July 13, 2018 after noticing that the petitioner has already paid the entire amount of the cheque in terms of the compromise, Annexure A-1, which was taken on record at that time.

Learned counsel for the complainant has put in appearance and states that the entire cheque amount has been received and the matter has been settled with the petitioner, and the complainant has no objection if the revision petition is allowed and order of conviction is set aside in terms of the compromise.

In view of the above, this revision petition is allowed and the order of sentence is set aside.
