CRM-M-27116-2020 (O&M)

A perusal of the FIR would show that there are no specific allegations made against the petitioner.

On 10.9.2020, this Court had granted interim protection to the petitioners and they were directed to join investigation and cooperate with the investigation process.

Today, learned State counsel, on instructions from SI Rajni Bala, submits that in pursuance of the aforesaid orders both the petitioners have joined investigation and have fully cooperated with the investigation process. It is further stated, on instructions, that they are no longer required for custodial interrogation.

In view of above, the present petition is allowed. Interim order dated 10.9.2020, is hereby made absolute.
