RAVI SHANKER JHA, C.J. (ORAL)

With the consent of learned counsel for both the parties, the matter is being taken up and heard via video conferencing.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that against the impugned orders passed by the respondents, the petitioner will file a representation before the respondent-authorities today itself. On the other hand, learned counsel appearing for the NHAI-respondents submits that the representation so filed by the petitioner shall be considered and decided by the respondents-NHAI in accordance with law within a period of three days.

In view of the aforesaid statement and consent given by learned counsel for both the parties, the petition stands disposed of with a direction that in case the petitioner file a representation before the respondents today itself, the same be decided expeditiously in accordance with law within a period of three days.

It is made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case and therefore, the authorities would be at liberty to examine the matter keeping all facts and facets into consideration and thereafter accept or reject the same in accordance with law.
