Versus

State of Haryana and others ... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GURVINDER SINGH GILL

Present:- Dr. Naresh Kaushik, Advocate, for the petitioner.

(Proceedings conducted through video conferencing)

GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J. (Oral)

The petitioner, who is working as Extension Lecturer/Assistant Professor on contractual basis seeks issuance of writ of mandamus to allow her to continue in service till regular recruitment is made and not to terminate her service by posting any Lecturer on deputation/transfer or by way of contractual appointment.

Perusal of allegations made in the petition would reveal that without approaching the competent authority for redressal of her grievances and giving opportunity to the Department to examine her case on the basis of her qualification and conduct in the light of policy in vogue, the petitioner has approached to this Court by invoking its extraordinary jurisdiction.

In the given circumstances, the petition is disposed of with liberty to petitioner to make a detailed representation to the competent authority, within a period of 7 days, against proper receipt. In case such a representation is made by the petitioner, same shall be decided by the competent authority within a period of 30 days from the date of its filing. It is further directed that in case the petitioner makes a representation within a period of 7 days, her services shall not be terminated till the decision of her representation.
