RAJBIR SEHRAWAT, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of writ in the nature of mandamus to direct the respondents No.2 & 4 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner at the hands of respondent No.6 to 8 and not to harass the petitioner.

2. A perusal of the paper book shows that the matter involves civil dispute, regarding which the parties are already in litigation. Therefore, the present petition has been filed with an oblique motive to avoid the consequences of litigation or to avoid the result of the other complaints made by other party.

3. Otherwise also, except the bald statement of the petitioner there is nothing on record to even remotely suggest that there is any threat to life and liberty of the petitioner.

4. In view of the above, the present petition is dismissed. However, the petitioner would be at liberty to avail his other remedies, in accordance with law, if the need arises and if deemed appropriate.
