Versus

State of Haryana and others

... Respondents

CORAM : Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.N. Satyanarayana

CORAM : Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Archana Puri

Present : Mr. S.K. Verma, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Raman Sharma, Addl. A.G. Haryana
for the respondents-State.

S.N. SATYANARAYANA, J.(Oral)

The matter has been taken up through video conferencing in the light of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The grievance of the petitioners in this proceeding, is that they are eligible to get admission for the course of B.Sc. Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry. They were wrongly given the option of Mathematics, Physics and Electronics, when persons having lesser marks to them were considered to the place of their option. It is in this background, certain orders were passed by this Court calling upon the concerned authorities to set right the error committed by them. It is in this background, learned State Counsel would submit that pursuant to order of this Court dated 03.11.2020, additional seats were created in B.Sc. Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry and petitioners were called to get themselves admitted.

However, at this juncture, learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners who were waiting all along, have now taken admission for the same course in different college. Therefore, the petitioners are not in a position to accept the offer which is made by the college. In the aforesaid circumstances, we find that the present petition has become infructuous.

Accordingly, the present writ petition is dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.
