

COCN No.2329 of 2020

Date of Decision : 02.11.2020

Rekha Rani

...Petitioner

Versus

Satish Chandra and others

....Respondents

Coram : Hon'ble Mr. Justice B.S. Walia

Present : Mr. A.P.S. Tung, Advocate for the petitioner.

B.S. Walia, J. (VC)

1. Case is being taken up for hearing through Video Conferencing due to the outbreak of Covid-19 pandemic.

2. Learned counsel contends that CWP No.19786 of 2011 was allowed by directing the petitioners to be heard in person by the State Government and their claims to be decided on merits and till passing of fresh orders, status quo was directed to be maintained but despite lapse of more than 07 years, needful has not been done.

3. Notice to respondent No.1 to show cause as to why proceedings under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 be not initiated against him for violation of the orders of the Division Bench dated 08.07.2013 in CWP No.19786 of 2011 in case titled as 'Rekha Rani versus State of Punjab and others'.

4. Mr. Aditya Sharda, learned Asstt. A.G., Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of respondent No.1 and on instructions from Mr. N.S. Sodhi, Law number of affected petitioners involved who have to be given personal hearing, the needful is under process and in case 12 weeks' more time is granted, the needful would be done and fresh orders would be passed and conveyed to the petitioner.

5. The same satisfies learned counsel for the petitioner, who states that in view of the assurance held out by Mr. N.S. Sodhi, Law Officer in the office of respondent No.1 on behalf of respondent No.1 to pass fresh orders in terms of the decision of Hon'ble the Division Bench dated 08.07.2013 in CWP No.19786 of 2011 within 12 weeks from today, he does not press the contempt petition, at this stage and the same may be disposed of as not pressed at this stage while granting liberty to the petitioner to move an application for revival of the contempt petition, if the circumstances of the case so warrant.

6. I have considered the submissions of learned counsel for the parties.

7. It is indeed unfortunate that despite orders dated 08.07.2013, directing the passing of fresh orders by the State Government by considering the claims of the petitioners, orders have not been passed despite lapse of a period of close to 07 years. Be as it may, in view of the assurance held out by the learned State Counsel, one final opportunity is granted to respondent No.1 to decide the claim of the petitioner in terms of order dated 08.07.2013 in CWP No.19786 of 2011 within 12 weeks from today with the orders to be passed on the claim of the petitioner to be conveyed to her within 01 week thereafter. However, it is made clear that in case the needful is not done an application for revival of the contempt petition for appropriate action in the matter.

8. Contempt petition disposed of with the aforementioned directions.
