Vs.

State of Haryana...Respondent*CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ BAJAJ

Present: Mr. Pardeep Kumar, Advocate for the petitioner.

MANOJ BAJAJ, J.

Petitioner has filed this petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C for quashing of the order dated 30.04.2013 (Annexure P-3) whereby petitioner has been declared as proclaimed person in case FIR No.376 dated 15.09.2010 registered under Sections 435, 427 and 120-B Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Narnaund, District Hisar.

Learned counsel contends that that petitioner shifted to Chandigarh to pursue his job and was not present when the impugned order of declaring him as proclaimed offender was passed. He contends that the FIR was registered against 150 persons and without making any arrest, the final report was filed against 16 accused persons. According to him, the impugned order is not sustainable as no effective notice/proclamation was served upon him.

During the course of hearing, it is not disputed by learned counsel that the FIR No.376 dated 15.09.2010 was registered prior to the shifting of the petitioner to Chandigarh i.e in the year 2013 and presently also, the petitioner is residing at the same address which is contained in the FIR. Besides, the memo of parties filed with the petition also contains the same address, therefore, this Court does not find any reason to exercise the inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., to interfere with the impugned order after seven years.

Petition is dismissed.
