

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CWP-18465-2020

Date of Decision : 14.12.2020

M/s Manchanda Traders

..... Petitioner

Versus

Central Bank of India and others

..... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AUGUSTINE GEORGE MASIH HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ASHOK KUMAR VERMA

Present : Mr. Sudesh Sahi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Saurabh Bhardwaj, Advocate for respondents No.1 and 2.

AUGUSTINE GEORGE MASIH, J. (Oral)

On the last date i.e. 04.11.2020 when the case came up for hearing, the following order was passed:-

“Learned counsel for the parties were initially heard and thereafter, at their request the case was kept pending to be taken after some time to workout the details with regard to the repayment of the dues outstanding. The schedule as forwarded by the counsel for respondents No.1 & 2 for payment has been received by the court through mail which is taken on record. Counsel for the petitioner, on instructions from the petitioner, states that 25% of the amount due towards the petitioner would be deposited by it within a period of four weeks from today and the remaining amount will be paid as per the repayment schedule fixed by the bank on or before 31.03.2021. To check the bonafide of the petitioner hearing of the case is deferred to 14.12.2020.

Status quo with regard to possession be maintained till the next date of hearing.”

Counsel for the parties do not dispute the fact that the petitioner has not been able to comply with the statement which was given by the counsel for the petitioner on instructions.

In the light of the above, we do not find any ground for further extending the order dated 04.11.2020 or accepting the prayer of the petitioner in the writ petition.

The writ petition, therefore, stands dismissed. However, it would be open to the petitioner to avail alternative remedy in accordance with law, if so advised.
