Case taken up through Video Conferencing.

The appellants/claimants have filed the present appeal seeking therein enhancement in the compensation awarded to them through an order dated 02.03.2012 passed by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Chandigarh (for short, the Tribunal).

On 30.11.2012, the appeal was admitted for regular hearing and in the meanwhile the contesting parties i.e. the appellants-claimants and respondent No.2 - Insurance Company filed a joint application for disposing of the main appeal on the ground that respondent No.2-Insurance company had offered to the appellants-claimants an amount of Rs.2,75,000/- over and above the amount awarded by the Tribunal as full and final settlement between the parties which offer has been accepted by the claimants. An affidavit of appellant No.2, who is the son of appellant No.1, has also been filed that such amount be paid to appellant No.1.

In view of the above settlement between the parties the present appeal is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to pay to appellant No.1 an amount of Rs.2,75,000/- through demand draft, which shall be over and above the amount awarded by the Tribunal in the impugned award and shall be towards full and final settlement of the claim between the parties. For such payment respondent No.2 is granted 45 days from today.
