Learned counsel for the petitioner argues that the petitioner has filed the Execution Petition for realizing the amount awarded by the Arbitrator in favour of the petitioner but the Executing Court, though has attached the account of the respondent-Punjab Water Supply and Sewerage Board but the amount for which the petitioner is entitled, has not been released to him, which is causing financial constraint to the petitioner. The prayer of the petitioner is for directing the Executing Court to finalize the execution proceedings at the earliest.

Though advance copy of the petition has already been served upon the respondent but no one has put in appearance.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case, the Executing Court is directed to finalize the execution proceedings within a period of six months, in case, there is no legal impediment in doing so.

The present Civil Revision is disposed of in above terms.
