

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.20568 of 2020
Date of decision: 17.12.2020

Lovepreet Singh

...Petitioner

Vs.

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE RITU BAHRI

Present: Mr. Parneet Singh, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ritu Bahri, J. (oral)

Petitioner is seeking quashing of the order dated 14.10.2019 (Annexure P-2), whereby appeal filed by his grandparents namely Nasib Singh and Gurmail Kaur against the order dated 13.04.2019 has been allowed and they (grandparents) have been held entitled to receive Rs.6000/- per month from Gursewak Singh, Ranjit Singh and Lovepreet Singh (petitioner herein).

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that present petitioner Lovepreet Singh is the son of Gursewak Singh and he is not liable to maintain his grantparents.

A perusal of the impugned order dated 14.10.2019 (Annexure P-2) shows that appellants-Nasib Singh and Gurmail Kaur (grandparents of petitioner) were residing with their daughter at Khamano and present petitioner along with his father Gursewak Singh and Ranjit Singh had given a statement that they would take care of the appellants/grandparents. However, keeping in view that there was a dispute between them with direction was given that all three respondents (including present petitioner) will give Rs.6000/- per month to the appellants.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that the present petitioner is the grandson and he is not liable to maintain his grandparents.

Father of the petitioner, namely Gursewak Singh was proceeded against ex-parte before the Appellate Court and he (Gursewak Singh) being their son, has to maintain his parents. Since, he was proceeded against ex-parte before the Appellate Court, present petitioner can raise a claim, if any, against his father Gursewak Singh.

After going hearing learned counsel for the petitioner and going through the contents of this petition, no ground is made out to interfere in the impugned order(s).

No merits. Dismissed.
