

THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-42992-2020 (O&M)

Date of decision: 18.12.2020

Ravinder Kumar

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE H.S. MADAAN

Present: Mr. Manish Soni, Advocate for the petitioner.

H.S. MADAAN, J. (Oral)

Case taken up through video conferencing.

Petitioner Ravinder Kumar, aged about 26 years, an accused in FIR No.183 dated 13.04.2020, for offences under Sections 201, 202, 302 and 34 IPC, registered with Police Station Bawal, District Rewari has filed the instant petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C., for grant of interim bail for a period of one month for making necessary arrangement for surgery of his daughter, who is said to be suffering from Bilateral Profound Sensorineural Hearing Loss and for treatment of his mother, who is an old lady, requiring eye surgery.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner besides going through the record.

As per prosecution story, Vijay Singh son of Lal Singh, resident of Anandpur had been given severe beatings, to which he had succumbed. Petitioner Ravinder Kumar is an accused in that case, which is of serious nature. He had moved similar application before Addl. Sessions Judge, Rewari, which was dismissed with the observations that Suresh Devi, mother of applicant/accused has four brothers, who can assist and attend to her for the concerned surgery and wife of the petitioner/accused is there to look after the minor daughter. I do not see any reason to disagree with learned Addl. Sessions Judge, Rewari in that regard. The instant petition seems to have been filed solely for the purpose of coming out of custody for one reason or the other. On the late, a trend has been observed that realizing that a petition for regular bail may not be allowed on merits, petitions for grant of interim bail are being filed for various reasons, like marriage in near relatives, bereavement in the relations, illness of family members etc., and many a times, the petitioners are successful in getting the relief, in that way, resulting in increased number of such petitions. Though, an accused in custody may approach the Court seeking temporary release on a genuine ground but not for made up, concocted and fabricated reasons. Thus, no ground is there to grant interim bail to the petitioner. The petition so moved by him stands dismissed accordingly.

18.12.2020

sumit.k

(H.S. MADAAN)
JUDGE

Whether speaking/reasoned :	Yes	No
Whether Reportable :	Yes	No