Date of Decision:- 18.12.2020

Ashu Saini

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and others

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GURVINDER SINGH GILL

Present:- Mr. Sandeep Arora, Advocate, for the petitioner.

(Proceedings conducted through video conferencing)

GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J. (Oral)

The petitioner has approached this Court seeking issuance of a direction to respondents not to unnecessarily harass him or to implicate him in FIR No.182, dated 17.11.2019, Police Station Division No.6, Jalandhar, under Sections 420, 408, 120-B IPC (Sections 465, 467, 468, 471, 120-B IPC added later on).

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner had earlier associated with the inquiry proceedings and had been found innocent but despite the same the police is unnecessarily harassing him time and again and is visiting his house.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petition is disposed off with a direction to respondent No.2-Commissioner of Police, Jalandhar, that in case the petitioner has been found to be innocent and there is nothing on record to establish his complicity in the matter, then he be not unnecessarily harassed and in case he is to be associated with any inquiry proceedings or any information is to be elicited from him, then a prior notice be afforded to him.

The petition stands disposed off accordingly.
