CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH

for the petitioners.

AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J. (ORAL)

All cases listed today have been taken up for hearing by way of video conferencing because of the situation existing due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

By this petition, the petitioners seek protection of life and liberty at the hands of respondents no. 4 to 10, upon them having married each other (as contended) against the wishes of the said respondents, on 29.11.2020.

Though the petitioners are shown to be 37 and 44 years of age, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that in fact the parents and relatives of the first husband of petitioner no. 1, i.e. respondents no. 4 to 10, are in fact creating a problem for the petitioners despite her first husband having died on 19.05.2020.

As regards petitioner no. 2, it is stated to be his first marriage.

On a specific query put to learned counsel for the petitioners, it has been stated that the petitioners are not in any prohibited relationship to each other. He states that he has obtained specific instructions from the petitioners in that regard.

Without making any comment on what has been contended hereinabove or what is stated in the petition, however, since protection of life and liberty is a fundamental right of every citizen under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, without making any comment whatsoever on the validity of the marriage, or otherwise, this petition is disposed of with a direction to respondents no. 2 and 3 to ensure that the lives and liberty of the petitioners are not put to any harm or threat at the hands of the aforesaid respondents, or at their behest.

Further, it is made clear that if any of the averments made in the petition is found to be incorrect, specifically with regard to either the petitioners being in any prohibited relationship to each other, or as regards their previous marital status, this order shall not be construed to be a bar on proceedings initiated as per law.
