C.M. No.9220-CII of 2020

This is a joint application filed by both the parties for pre-poning the date of hearing of the appeal, which is fixed for 28.10.2020 and for disposing of the same in terms of the oral compromise arrived at between the appellant/claimant and the insurance company through their counsel.

In view of the reasons mentioned in the application, the same is allowed and main appeal is taken up for hearing today itself.

FAO No.9598 of 2014

The instant appeal has been filed seeking to challenge the Award passed by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Bathinda dated 03.07.2014 vide which claim petition preferred by the appellant/claimant had been allowed and a compensation of Rs.1,38,356/- along with interest @9% had been awarded to the claimant.

During the pendency of the appeal, an amicable settlement arrived at between the parties wherein it has been agreed that appellant/claimant would be satisfied if the insurance company would pay another sum of Rs.90,000/- over and above the amount already awarded by the Tribunal, which amount would also be inclusive of interest component.

The joint application has been filed by both the appellant/claimant and the respondent No.3/insurance company for disposal of the appeal in terms of the mutual settlement arrived at between the parties.

Counsel for the appellant and the contesting respondent No.3/insurance company have put in appearance through the medium of video conferencing and they affirm that the matter has been settled amicably inter se parties. It has been agreed by the claimant that he would be satisfied in case another sum of Rs.90,000/- is paid towards full and final settlement by the insurance company.

Consequently, keeping in view that settlement has been arrived at between the parties, the instant appeal is disposed of in terms of the oral compromise. The insurance company will pay another amount of Rs.90,000/- over and above the amount already deposited before the Tribunal as full and final settlement, which would be inclusive of interest component. Let a demand draft of an amount of Rs.90,000/- be sent through speed/registered post by the insurance company to the appellant/claimant within a period of one month from today.
