Learned counsel for the petitioner has invited the attention of the Court to the order dated 19.09.2019 whereby while issuing notice of motion to the respondent-State, the interim protection was extended to the petitioner. The said order reads as under:-

“Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the vehicle in question was sold in the year 2014 and at the same time while delivering the vehicle to the purchaser, all the relevant documents were also handed over to the complainant. He submits that in the given facts, custodial interrogation of the petitioner may not be required.

Meanwhile, the petitioner shall join the investigation and would come present as and when called for and in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be admitted to interim bail on his furnishing personal and surety bonds to the satisfaction of Arresting/Investigating Officer. The petitioner shall also abide by the conditions as specified under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.”
