for respondent No.3.

HARNARESH SINGH GILL, J.(Oral)

Case is taken up for hearing through video conferencing.

CM-7355-CII-2020

This is an application under Section 151 CPC for preponing the main appeal and its disposal in view of the compromise arrived at between the parties.

Learned counsel for applicant-respondent No.3 submits that the matter has been settled with the appellants/claimants and a cheque amounting to Rs.3,50,000/-, being full and final settlement amount, over and above the amount under all the heads already awarded by the learned Tribunal, drawn in favour of appellant No.1, will be handed over to the learned counsel for the appellants within four weeks from today.

Notice of the application.

Mr. Vivek Suri, Advocate, accepts notice on behalf of the non-applicant/appellants and does not dispute the factum of compromise.

In view of the above, the present application is allowed and the main appeal, which is fixed for 21.08.2020, is preponed for today itself. The main appeal is taken on Board for hearing.

FAO-6685-2017

Admittedly, settlement has been arrived at between the parties and as per the same, respondent No.3-insurance company will pay Rs.3,50,000/- to appellant No.1 under all the heads of compensation including interest component, towards full and final settlement of claim over and above the amount already awarded by the Tribunal.

In view of the above, respondent No.3 is directed to hand over the cheque amounting to Rs.3,50,000/-, drawn in favour of appellant No.1, to the learned counsel for the appellants under all the heads of compensation, including interest component, towards full and final settlement of claim over and above the amount already awarded by the Tribunal within four weeks.

The appeal stands disposed of.

However, the appellants would be at liberty to reopen the matter in case of any default in payment on the part of respondent No.3.

It is made clear that in case there is any delay in payment of the abovesaid amount, the same shall accrue interest @ 7% per annum.
