State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN

Present:- Mr. Rakesh Nehra, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Naveen Sheoran, DAG, Haryana.

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J. (Oral)

The petitioner prays for grant of anticipatory bail in FIR No.360 dated 11.10.2019, under Sections 147, 148, 186, 332, 353 and 109 of the IPC, registered at Police Station City Jhajjar, District Jhajjar.

The operative part of the order dated 29.10.2019, vide which the petitioner has been granted interim bail, is reproduced below:

“It is contended by learned counsel for the petitioner that case against the petitioner has been created only at the instance of the management of the Medical College, against which the sister of the petitioner, who is student of that Medical College, has filed a writ petition for transferring the students to some other medical colleges due to the reason that the said medical college is not fulfilling even the basic norms of establishment of a Medical College. It is further contended that even the MCI has stopped the further admissions to the said College; for the year 2019-20. Because of the deficiencies of facilities at the Medical College, students of the Medical College are on protest. Sister of the petitioner is also one of the protesting students. The protesting students were taken to Civil Hospital for the purpose of providing them the first aid qua their deteriorating health situation. The sister of the petitioner was also there. Otherwise, the petitioner is also a Medical Officer at the Government Primary Health Centre in the same district. There is no reason for the petitioner to take up a fight with the doctors working in the Civil Hospital in the same district. The entire exercise is being carried out by the police against the petitioner, at the behest of the owner of the said medical college.

Notice of motion.”

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner, in pursuance to the order dated 29.10.2019, has already appeared before the SHO/Investigating Officer and has joined the investigation.

Learned counsel for the State, on instructions from the Investigating Officer, has not disputed the factual position and submits that the petitioner has joined the investigation and is no more required for any further investigation.

In view of the above, the petition is allowed and the interim bail granted to the petitioner, vide order dated 29.10.2019, is made absolute subject to the conditions envisaged under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
