Harpreet Kaur

... Applicant

Versus

Jagjit Singh

... Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN MONGA

Present:- Ms. Benti Kaur, Advocate for Mr. Kawaljyot Singh, Advocate, for the applicant.

Mr. B.D.Sharma, Advocate, for the respondent.

ARUN MONGA, J.(ORAL)

1. Applicant-wife seeks transfer of petition filed by the respondent-husband under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 titled as “Jagjit Singh Vs. Harpreet Kaur” pending in the Court of Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Bholath, District Kapurthala to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Jalandhar.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. seeking grant of maintenance against the respondent-husband filed by the applicant-wife is already pending at Jalandhar.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that applicant is residing at Village Dalli, Post Office Bhogpur, District Jalandhar with her old age parents. She has no source of income. The distance from her village to Kapurthala is about 50 kms.

Therefore, it is difficult for her to go to Kapurthala on each date of hearing.

4. Learned counsel for the respondent appears and opposes the transfer application by saying that distance from Bhogpur i.e. her place of parents to Bholath Court, District Kapurthala is about 15 kms and there is direct bus service also whereas Jalandhar city is situated at a distance of 30 kms. from Bhogpur. Reply has also been filed by him, which is taken on record.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record of the case.

6. Both the cases pending between the parties are aftermath of matrimonial discord. Keeping in view the contentions in the application and the conceded position that petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. is already pending at Jalandhar, it would be proper, appropriate and in the interest of justice if both the cases are tried and decided at one place.

7. Reference may also be had to the observations made by Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India in cases titled as "Sumita Singh Vs. Kumar Sanjay and another", AIR 2002 SC 396 and Rajni Kishor Pardeshi v. Kishor Babulal Pardeshi" 2005 (12) SCC 237, wherein in matrimonial matters, convenience of wife is to be preferred over the convenience of husband.

8. Even otherwise, the ethos as manifested under Article 51-A of Constitution of India also envisage that it shall be fundamental duty of every citizen of India to uphold the dignity of woman. In addition, per Article 15 (3), power has also been conferred on the State to make special provisions for women and children.

9. It was perhaps in this spirit that an amendment was inserted by Act 50 of 2003 with effect from 23.12.2003 in Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, whereby, in case of a wife being the petitioner, jurisdiction was conferred to the Court within local limits of whose ordinary original civil jurisdiction, the wife is residing on the date of presentation of the petition. In fact the very statement of objects and reasons of the Bill whereby Clause (iiia) was inserted in Section 19 (i) of HMA, by way of marriage laws (Amendment Act 2003) states as below :

“The Special Marriage Act, 1954 and the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 provide that a petition for relief under the provisions of these Acts shall be presented to the District Court within the limits of whose original civil jurisdiction the marriage was solemnized or the respondent, at the time of the presentation of the petition, resided or the parties to the marriage last resided together or the petitioner was residing at the time of the presentation of the petition, in a case where the respondent was at the time residing outside the territories to which these Acts extended or had not been heard of as being alive for a period of seven years by those who would naturally have heard of him if he were alive. However, these provisions are not considered adequate or fair as far the women are concerned. Under the existing provisions, a petition cannot be filed by the aggrieved wife to the District Court within the local limits of whose ordinary jurisdiction she may be residing. In view thereof, the Government has decided to amend the provisions of these Acts so that the wife can also file petition in the District Court within local limits of whose jurisdiction she may be residing.”

10. After the aforesaid amendment, husband can only institute proceedings, either where marriage was solemnized or where the wife is residing or where the parties last resided together. Only in a case where wife is residing outside India, the husband can institute proceedings where he is residing. Whereas, wife can also file a petition in the competent Court within whose local limits of jurisdiction, she herself is residing. The said right has been exclusively conferred on a wife so as to keep her convenience in mind in the matrimonial matters.

11. In the premise, without going into the other rival contentions of the parties, present application is allowed. The petition in question pending before the Court of Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Bholath, District Kapurthala is ordered to be withdrawn from that Court and is transferred to the District Judge, Jalandhar for its disposal in accordance with law by the Court concerned.
