for the petitioner.

RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J. (Oral)

1. The decree has mulcted the petitioner. The petitioner is the defendant-judgment debtor. The defendant was a milk supplier.

2. The objection cannot go beyond the decree in the suit for recovery of money in a commercial transaction of supply of goods. The money was owed to the plaintiff who succeeded to secure a decree. This revision is against an order dismissing the objections. There is no reason to disagree with the impugned order or to substitute it with any other order in exercise of revisionary jurisdiction under Article 227 of the Constitution of India which is to keep the lower Courts within the boundaries of their jurisdiction.

3. No error of jurisdiction is apparent on the face of the record. The petition is dismissed.
