

S.No.121

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CR No.8184 of 2019 (O&M)

Date of Decision:21.01.2020

Maya Devi

.....Petitioner

Vs.

Central Bank of India, Indri and others

.....Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJBIR SEHRAWAT

Present:- Mr. Kulwant Singh Dhanora, Advocate for the petitioner.

Rajbir Sehrawat, J.(Oral)

The present petition has been filed by the petitioner under Article 227 of the Constitution seeking quashing the impugned order dated 20.05.2019 (Annexure P.3) vide which the application for releasing the amount of Rs.1,25,000/- bearing FDR No.170491 dated 03.01.2018 (Annexure P.2) has been partially allowed and further directing respondent No.1/ Central Bank of India, Indri, District Karnal to release the entire FDR amount with upto date interest.

A bare perusal of the order passed by the Tribunal shows that need of the petitioner has been duly taken care of by permitting withdrawal of 20% of the amount of the FDR for expenses, for the time being. This Court does not find any illegality with the order as such.

Another surprising aspect of the matter is that the other claimants in the claim petition, along-with the present petitioner, were the sons of the petitioner. There are fixed deposits ordered by the same Tribunal in their favour also. However, the sons have not come forward to get their FDs encashed for the expenses. Only the FD of the mother is sought to be encashed.

In view of the above, this Court otherwise also do not deem it appropriate to permit the encashment of the entire amount of the FD in favour of the petitioner, at this stage.

Dismissed.
