CRL.M.A. 4382/2018 (exemption)

1. Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. The application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.C. 1202/2018

1. The present proceedings are instituted seeking quashing of FIR No.398/2000 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC registered at P.S. Janakpur, Delhi. Although initially the petition was filed seeking quashing on merits but the parties have now settled their disputes.
2. Learned APP for the State submits that the charge-sheet in the present case has been filed under the aforesaid sections against the present petitioner and respondent No.3 is the only complainant/victim.

3. Learned APP for the State and the petitioner submit that they have entered into a settlement before Delhi Mediation Centre, Dwarka Courts, New Delhi on 03.12.2019. In terms of the settlement, respondent No.2 is now left with no claim whatsoever against the petitioners.
4. Petitioner, who is present in person, has been identified by the Investigating Officer. Respondent No.3, who is present in court, is also identified by her counsel and by the Investigating Officer.
5. Respondent No.3, who is present in Court, states that she has entered into the settlement agreement with her own free will, volition and without any coercion. She further states that she has no objection if the present FIR and consequent proceedings are quashed.
6. The parties are bound by the statements made in Court today.
7. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that no other proceedings are pending between the parties.
8. In view of the above facts and since the disputes are matrimonial in nature which have been amicably settled, no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, it is directed that the aforesaid FIR and the consequent proceedings arising therefrom are hereby quashed.
9. With the above directions, the petition is disposed of.
10. Order dasti to the learned counsels for the parties.
